What is Let's Do Lunch?

Let's Do Lunch days are a perfect opportunity to see Miele's cooking appliances in action.

You will join a group of people in a friendly, informal atmosphere for an entertaining cookery demonstration and two course lunch.

Our team of Home Economists will guide you through the Miele built-in range showing you key features and functions. You will experience their great versatility and introduce appliances you may not have seen before.

Let's Do Lunch product and cookery demonstrations are held at both our Oxfordshire and London locations.

*when you buy at least 5 products (minimum of 3 cooking appliances). Purchases need to be made within 6 months after attending event.
