St Anne's Hall chooses Miele Professional for quality crockery cleaning

St Anne's Hall is a community hall in Wendover, Buckinghamshire, which is let out to members of the public and hosts a number of different community classes including zumba, dance and art. Many of these activities involve the use of crockery and equipment that needs to be cleaned.

Mary Baker, who manages operations at the hall, first came across Miele Professional when she received word-of-mouth recommendations from people who had experience of the brand. With St

PG 8080 commercial dishwasher would be a great choice because of its ability to handle large loads of crockery and get them sparkling clean in short cycle times.

Commenting on her new purchase, Mary said: "We would definitely recommend this dishwasher to other community halls. It gives us a consistently high level of cleaning and is more than enough to get through the levels of dirty crockery our events generate. It's been a great investment."

Anne's needing a new dishwasher to complete its fully-fitted kitchen, Mary began her research.

Having browsed the products on the new Miele Professional website, Mary sought the advice of her local dealer, G&E Automatic Equipment. The team there confirmed that the

"The team at G&E Automatic Equipment was excellent. After we purchased the machine, the installation was done promptly and at a convenient time, so it didn't disturb the smooth running of activities in the hall."
